Nair v. Coastal Employers

Forum	Labour Court · Kochi
Practice area	Employment
Outcome	Won

Case summary

Forty workers were dismissed without notice. The court ordered reinstatement with back wages for every one of them.

Our approach

We began with a full review of the documents and a frank assessment of risk with the client. Our team then built the case around the strongest facts, prepared every witness, and kept the client informed at each stage.

Result

Outcome: Won. The client received a clear written outcome and guidance on next steps.

This is a hypothetical case study prepared for illustration. Names, courts and facts are fictional and do not describe real proceedings or guarantee any result.
