The Bank Guarantee Case

Forum	High Court · Kolkata
Practice area	Banking
Outcome	Fought, partly won

Case summary

A bank invoked a guarantee that should have expired. We won on the main claim and negotiated the remainder.

Our approach

We began with a full review of the documents and a frank assessment of risk with the client. Our team then built the case around the strongest facts, prepared every witness, and kept the client informed at each stage.

Result

Outcome: Fought, partly won. The client received a clear written outcome and guidance on next steps.

This is a hypothetical case study prepared for illustration. Names, courts and facts are fictional and do not describe real proceedings or guarantee any result.
